Fee Balance Full balance must be paid prior to your arrival at camp.

REFUND POLICY

Please note: The $50 individual deposit is not refundable under any circumstances. Within 30 days of your arrival date at camp, refunds will only be considered for the following reasons. An individual may become ill or otherwise unable to attend camp. Since the camps have incurred expenses related to the reservation such as staff employment, food costs, and program materials, not all fees are refundable. The refund of the balance of any fees paid will be based upon the proximity to your arrival date in camp and if it meets the criteria outlined below. In all cases, requests for refunds must be in writing and submitted to the Cradle of Liberty Council Camping Office on or before your arrival date in camp (these letters may also be submitted at check-in at camp on Sunday). This letter must be approved and endorsed by the Unit Leader. Refunds will be made to the Unit Leader or Troop account only.

Criteria used to consider a refund will include the following reasons only and appropriate documentation should be submitted with your letter requesting a refund:

1. Scout's illness - written statement is required from physician.
2. Extreme family emergency - written statement is required from parent.
3. Summer School - written statement is required from school principal or guidance counselor

CAMPERSHIP POLICY

Camperships (scholarship money) may be available to currently registered CRADLE OF LIBERTY scouts with verified financial need.

*Campership awards are applied to the discounted rate as long as a $50 deposit is made by May 1st. The balance would be due upon approval of campership amounts. The deadline to apply for a Campership is May 1st. See the Campership form for details.
